Series: As You Go...
When They Don't Listen

Luke 10:10-16 - But whenever you enter a town and they do not receive you, go into its streets and say, ¹¹ 'Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this, that the kingdom of God has come near.' ¹² I tell you, it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town.

¹³ "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.¹⁴ But it will be more bearable in the judgment for Tyre and Sidon than for you. ¹⁵ And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? You shall be brought down to Hades.

¹⁶ "The one who hears you hears me, and the one who rejects you rejects me, and the one who rejects me rejects him who sent me."

Home Group Questions

These questions are provided for your further study and application of today's sermon. Home groups meet weekly and will provide you an opportunity to review the message, and to apply it to your life personally. Also, thoughtfully writing out the answers to these questions will help to drive home the truths we are learning.

Large Group

1. Was there any passage of scripture or statement in the message today that was particularly meaningful or applicable to you?

Small Group

2. Read Colossians 4:5-6. Think about your conversations with people about Jesus. Have you been able to follow the commands in this passage during those conversations? What can happen if you ignore these instructions? How can you keep the right attitude and demeanor during these important conversations?
3. Read Psalms 119:136 and Romans 9:1-3. How can you keep your heart tender toward the lost?
4. Read 2 Thessalonians 1:5-10. Why is it that so often we don't like to think about the coming judgment? How do (should) these truths impact your thinking and behaviors, especially concerning your role as an evangelist?
